

SOL CENTER
CULTIVATING CLIMATE JUSTICE AND PEACE

Huaka'i Hawai'i

A Journey of Change and Resiliency

Exploring Climate Impacts in Hawai'i as a Vehicle for Envisioning Local/Global Sustainable Solutions

August 3 - 16, 2020

O'ahu, Hawai'i, United States of America

Huaka'i Hawai'i: A Journey of Change and Resiliency in Hawai'i

Week 1: E Komo Mai at Camp Mokule'ia

This week we begin building our community and exploring our sense of place. We'll visit many places including one of the most sacred sites in Hawai'i. We'll engage in fun activities while exploring indigenous and modern approaches to systems thinking, navigating coastal climate change, conservation, and food and energy production all on the stunning North Shore!

Day 1: E Komo Mai at Camp Mokule'ia

- Welcome and orientation

Day 2: Building Community: A Hawaiian Sense of Place

- State Monument Kūkaniloko Birthstones

Day 3: Navigating Change: Mitigating Impacts on the Ahupua'a

- Exploring Mokule'ia bay, beach and streams at Camp

Day 4: Biocultural Tourism

- Waimea Valley Park

Day 5: Exploring 'Āina (That Which Feeds Us)

- Hawai'i Fish Company, TerViva Pongamia Farm
- Pioneer Farm, Mōhala Farms

Day 6: 21st Century Ahupua'a Systems Thinking and Action Planning

- Hike to Ka'ena Point

Huaka'i Hawai'i: A Journey of Change and Resiliency in Hawai'i

Week 2: E Komo Mai at Kokokahi YWCA and Kahumana Community

This week we'll explore bio-cultural restoration, and food and energy production in the diverse Ko'olau, Ala Wai and Wai'anae watershed communities on the Windward and Westside of the island!

Day 7: 'Āina, Conservation and Tourism on the Windward Side

- Windfarms and Watering Holes
- Kualoa Ranch, settle in at Kokokahi YWCA

Day 8: Marine Ecosystems and 'Āina on Kaneohe Bay

- Expedition to Moku o Lo'e with Hawai'i Institute of Marine Biology
- Paepae o He'eia Fishpond in the He'eia Natural Estuarine Research Reserve

Day 9: Biocultural Restoration and Tourism in Kailua

- Ulupō State Historic Site, Kailua Town and Beach

Day 10: 'Āina, Energy and Watershed Restoration in Honolulu

- Hawai'i Food Service Alliance, Pacific Biodiesel and Ala Wai Watershed

Day 11: Biocultural Restoration, 'Āina, and Energy Justice on the Westside

- Ma'o Farm to Fork, Ka'ala Farms and Wai'anae Solar Farm

Day 12: 'Ike 'Ai: Building Knowledge for Healthy Food Systems

- UH West O'ahu Sustainable Agriculture Program

Day 13: Closing the Circle and Completing the Journey

- Kahumana Community and Culminating Ceremony

Day 14: Aloha: Sharing the Universal Breath

- Farewell, ground and airport transfers